dence of Captain Handcock, located on the Staple's-M II road, about three miles from Richmond, a picture of which is herewith presented, were thrown open on July I, 1894, and since that time they have been a rendezvous for horsemen, which has no equal in this State.

The semi-weekly meets of the club are held from October to April, inclusive; and as a source of keen, exhilarating exercise and pleasant social intercourse are largely anticipated, the turnout always being large, and many ladies participating.

Last year at the first spring meeting the club had only one race, which was for a handsome silver cup, offered as a championship for the best horse owned by its members. The cup was wen by Mr. Handcock's Queen mare, ridden by Mr. E. S. Craven; Dr. Joseph A. White's horse, ridden by Mr. Graham Hobson, being a close second.

SATURDAY'S PROGRAMME.

At the meeting Saturday the club offers two races (steeplechases) for members of other recognized hunt clubs. They will also give a flat race, open to the farmers and tenants whose land the club rides over.

TALKS TO HIS CAPTAINS.

About Sunday-Opening Matter. Chief-of-Police Howard held a consultation yesterday morning with Captains Angle, Hulce, and Thomas, and gave them some directions regarding the manner of carrying out the Sanday-liquor laws. The matter was talked over in a general way, and Captains Angle and Huice agreed with what the Chief had previously stated as to the orders given to the captains last August, a year ago, in the several districts, reveking the order to report all persons seen on Sunday coming out or going into places on Sunday wherephar-rooms were attached. Chief Howard yesterday told the captains, in substance, of what had been done in the Police Board on the evening before, and explained to them that the board had never rescinded its orders to report all persons seen going in or coming out of these places of business on the Sabbath. He said that as he and the Police Board construed the them some directions regarding the man-Several farmers have also entered their horses.

The Race Committee is composed of the following gentlemen: Captain Philip Haxall (chairman), S. H. Handcock, P. A. S. Brine, E. H. Savage, and R. L. Tritton.

The following prominent citizens heve been chosen as judges: Dr. C. W. P. Brock, Judge E. C. Minor, and Judge T. Ashby Wickham.

Mr. W. J. Carter will act as starter, and the races will be conducted under the following conditions:

The committee shall have the right to bar any rider or refuse any entry. All horses must be owned and ridden by members of some recognized hunt club. Overweight will be allowed in all races. In races for hunters a master's certifiate must be produced, if required. At

Speaking of the law against faro-banks, poker-rooms, policy shops, and other gambling-houses, the Chief said that he had directed the captains at every regular weekly conference since he became the head of the force to keep a special look out for these places. "It is my rule never to take notice of anonym us communications containing alleged information sent to this office," sold he "but I make an exception where information is make an exception where information is given regarding gambling-h uses. Anony-mous reports of that character I always have thoroughly investigated. We have located and closed up five places on in-formation which came through this chan-nel."
